OSD Declassification/Release Instructions on File

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR, CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

Reference is made to the 26 November 1952 agreement between the Secretary of Defense, the Director of the Bureau of the Budget and the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency concerning reimbursement for certain officers detailed to the Central Intelligence Agency, and to the memorandum from the Deputy Director, Central Intelligence Agency, dated 10 April 1953, to the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Manpower and Personnel) relative to strength accounting and promotion policies for officers assigned to the Central Intelligence Agency.

In regard to strength accounting for military personnel assigned to the Central Intelligence Agency, each of the four Services is authorized to exceed its budgeted and strength and man years, and any ceiling restrictions on grades, by the number of reimbursable officers assigned to the Agency.

It is our policy that personnel programs of the Services are so administered that assignment of individuals to types of duty for which reimbursement is made shall not interfere with their normal career advancement.

A copy of the memorandum to the Secretaries of the Military Departments on this subject is inclosed for your information.
